Give Your Dad the Gift of Good Health & Pure Air on This Father's Day

With Father's Day fast approaching, this is the perfect time for you to show your dad how much you appreciate and care about him with a gift to suit his health and lifestyle.

With the alarmingly high pollution levels in India and deteriorating air quality, Moonbow has you covered with portable car air purifiers that help your dad get the best air quality on the go. A thoughtful and necessary gift for the most important man in your life.

Moonbow offers car air purifier with 4-stage purification process. Its High Efficiency Particulate Air (HEPA) Filter is 99% efficient in trapping all lung damaging allergens and airborne contaminants down to 0.3 micron in size. The auto odour sensors sense the bad odour to adjust the fans speed accordingly. The Moonbow car air purifier has aroma diffuser, filter replacement indicator and air quality indicator. Moonbow Car Air Purifiers are available on e-commerce (amazon, flipkart, snapdeal, etc.) and brick-n-mortar outlets (Croma) and come at an exclusive price of INR 6,990 with a one year warranty. Happy Father's Day to all the men out there who help us be our best selves!
